Victorian Modern Cursive

Trace the lines to complete this hairy gorilla, then colour.

Diagonal Joins

Extend the diagonal exit to the start of the next letter. These letters all join at or near the neckline.

Diagram showing the formation of the cursive letters 'a' and 'i' with a red dashed line indicating the diagonal join to the neckline. The sequence is 'a i' followed by 'a i' with a red dashed line and arrow showing the join, and finally 'ai'.
